WAVE OF THE FUTURE

Set 5

NAWC WAVE OF THE FUTURE

Welcome to the fifth set of my NAWC. Lots has transpired since the last. Sam Moon has returned to ringside to lead his fellow Goldsboro natives against their foes. The Council of Wyrms introduces their official tag team as Haikuru debuts and Moeru Tohkon gets a new look. Drake introduces the first two students of his training academy, one being his son. And Madness & Mayhem return with a vengeance and a new look looking to dominate the tag teams of the NAWC. All this and more, so sit back and enjoy.

I hope you have enjoyed the latest additions to the NAWC Universe. I want to thank my friend and artist Kevin Knipe who did a great job on the pics and helped with the production. I'd also like to thank Mike for help with Jac K'yl's name. Of course I also want to thank Tom Filsinger for creating this great game and inspiring me to create the NAWC and it's mythos. And finally I want to thank those that have influenced and inspired me to continue to put out these sets and post my results (Eric K., Eric M., Mike, Ken, Aaron, Jamie, Quentin, Markus and anyone else I might be forgetting.)

NOTES

Dillon Madness Mason (update)

The Marauders with the Mook, Brock and Keth Vale.

Managed by The Mook.

6'3" 290 lbs.

West Babylon, New York, Earth

CIRCLE OF MADNESS (singles finisher) (spinning torture rack dropped into a Burning Hammer)

MnM CUTTER (tag finisher) (with opponent on Brock's shoulder, Dillon leaps off top rope over opponent into a Diamond Cutter)

Mad Bomber (running senton off apron to floor)

Madness Sickle (leaping clothesline)

Brock Mayhem Mason (update)

Madness & Mayhem with Dillon.

The Marauders with the Mook, Dillon and Keth Vale.

Managed by The Mook.

6'4" 264 lbs.

West Babylon, New York, Earth

BLOW YOUR MIND (head and arm suplex dropping opponent on head)

MnM CUTTER (tag finisher) (with opponent on Brock's shoulder, Dillon leaps off top rope over opponent into a Diamond Cutter)

It has been a good three plus years ago since the debut of M&M. Along with manager The Mook, brothers Brock and Dillon Mason have joined the exiled Keth Vale in forming The Marauders. M&M have seen great success feuding with such great teams in the NAWC such as the Ragnarockers, New Kindred, Steven Rush & Von Braun, PRC and Primal Fear. Never title oriented their only title victory was for the All-Planets Title. They only made three title defenses before dropping the belts. Brock has ventured into singles action as of late doing battle with former GWF Superstar Mayhem over the name Mayhem. Brock holds the advantage over Mayhem if for no other reason then The Ma-raiders numbers advantage. Critics say that if given the chance Brock could turn into a singles star, but with Vale headlining the singles matches and M&M's continued tag success a singles career is not in the future for either. Look for a serious title push, as The Mook is out to prove he is the manager of champions and M&M look to cement their place as THE team to beat in the NAWC and the Indy circuit.

Moeru Tohkon The Burning Dragon (update)

Dragon Rage with Haikuru.

Council of Wyrms with Ryuujin, Ketsueki Ryuuko and Haikuru.
6'1" 220lbs.

Cameron, Texas, Earth

BURNING DRAGON (Stardust Press)

DRAGON RAGE (tag finisher) (Moeru and partner hit front kicks to opponents chest and back then follow up with front kicks to front and back of opponents head)

Rydeen Bomb (spinning spine buster)

Whirlwind Dragon Kick (top rope roundhouse kick)

Spirit Breaker (tag move) (move starts with Moeru putting a Boston Crab on opponent then partner comes off with a leg drop to back of neck then Moeru lets go and grabs opponents chin and pulls back for a neck vice like move and partner finishes off with dropkick to opponents face)

Dragon Lariat (whips opponent into ropes Moeru then spins and hits a crushing lariat as opponent rebounds off ropes)

After a promising start to his young career, Moeru was taken under the wing of Council of Wyrms leader Ryuujin. After an intensive training regime, Moeru was introduced to his future partner and newest member of the C.o.W. Haikuru. The two were then set against one another to test their abilities and to familiarize themselves with each other's offensive and defensive capabilities. The two soon became well versed with the others moves and once they began teaming together they became a well-oiled machine. It was then time for a secret ceremony were Moeru was given the lifeblood of the Dragon Elders. Moeru emerged bigger tion and his announcer's job on NAWC Television. Not taking these announcements sitting down Sam returns to ringside as the manager of the newly christened Alien Alliance team. With political upheaval in the air (two nations have joined council and a third has arisen from extinction trying to reclaim their former seat of power) Sam and Ciber Naught have begun retraining for the Contest of Champions, which is a mere 2 months away. Sam has also been training his son who has donned his Halfmoon mask and looks to enter the NAWC in the near future.

Council feels that it is now or never for this former blue chip prospect to make a name for himself. Karl has kept himself distant from the many conflicts in the NAWC and looks to make it on his own. Only time will tell if Karl can make the climb to the top but in the NAWC's eyes that time is running out, it's do or die time and this Earther will show that his will and heart along with his talent are more than enough to appease the hero hungry crowds of the NAWC.

Sam Moon (manager)

6'2" 211 lbs.

Goldsboro, Alaara

Manages the Alien Alliance (Ciber Naught, Tera Naught, Assassin X and Manta.)

Distracter Rating 6

BLUE OMEGA BOMB (double under hook folding powerbomb)

Sam Moon has been a wrestler, an announcer, a wrestler representative with the NAWC Council and he has been the leader of his peoples. Over twenty years ago Sam wrestled under a mask and called himself Halfmoon. He held titles all over Alaara and was considered the greatest wrestler of his generation. Then about fifteen years ago, war broke out on Alaara and Sam joined the military becoming a major player in the politics of the war. Then ten years ago after five brutal years of conflict, the fighting ceased and a council of the five remaining nations of Alaara formed a council to control all political affairs on the planet. Sam being the highest-ranking official in the Goldsboro Military was elected as their representative on the Council. The Council's first act was to create a Contest of Champions that would allow the winners nation control over the Council for a two-year period. Sam Moon won the first four contests and trained the fifth winner (Ciber Naught) and has kept Goldsboro as the leader of the council. Now after what some call questionable actions against enemies of his fellow Goldsboro natives, he has been removed from his seat on the council, his wrestler rep posiand stronger but just as fast as before. Ryuujin and the elders dubbed him the Burning Dragon but Moeru has decided to keep his previous name as well since it's meaning (fighting spirit that burns) he feels represents his new life path. Now a tag specialist Moeru enters the crowded tag ranks with rookie partner Haikuru. Can these two cruisers thrive against the bigger teams or will they be held down by the politics of wrestling?

Haikuru The Storm Dragon

Dragon Rage with Moeru Tohkon.

Council of Wyrms with Ryuujin, Ketsueki Ryuuko and Moeru Tohkon.

5'9" 200lbs.

Oahu, Hawaii, Earth

DRAGON KRUSH I –Fisherman Buster into a Falcon Arrow

DRAGON KRUSH II –cross-legged Fisherman Buster into a Falcon Arrow

Dragon Clutch – Modified Camel Clutch

Hanging Dragon – Dragon Clutch while in Tree of Woe in corner

Bite of the Dragon – Dragon Clutch in the ropes

Final Four – standing figure four leglock

Elbow Suicida – flying elbow through the ropes to floor

Front Kick – vicious kick to head

Tidal Krush – jumping hook kick to head in corner

Haikuru is the prodigy of the Council of Wyrms and Ryuujin has high hopes for his new protégé. Unlike the first two additions of established stars, Haikuru is the beginning of a host of home grown Dragon stars. Haikuru prefers a hard striking offense specializing in kicks and ground based moves. While he can fly through the air he would rather take his opponents head off with a kick or drop them head first with one of his two modified Falcon Arrows. In interviews and outside the ring he is a whirlwind of activity always stretching or practicing kicks. He is also very vocal and is not above taunting opponents that he feels are no match for his considerable skill. Despite this attitude and the slow boiling reserve of Moeru they mesh quite well and it will be interesting to see if anyone can stop a dragons rage once it's been ignited.

Jac K'yl

Tiger Corps with Drakardis.

Managed by Drake. (note Drake's Distracter Rating is a 6)

6'0" 240lbs.

Salaria, Alaara

K'YL ZONE (Tiger Driver 91)

Tiger Clutch (Cobra Clutch)

Jac is the first student of the new Black Tiger Training Academy to gain entrance to the NAWC. A native of the new home planet to the NAWC Alaara, Jac sought out the first NAWC Universal Champion Drake to begin training. At first Drake did not want to teach the brash would be student as he felt he still had plenty of gas in his tank to make a run at a major title. Finally, after capturing the All-Planets title Drake felt it was time to give back to the sport he has been apart of for the past twenty years. He finally agreed to train Jac, his son Drakardis and three other students. Jac was a quick learner and soon picked up the finer points in a few months. Then in the later parts of his training, he was teamed with Drakardis for their eventual debut in the NAWC. Now after two matches with Drake as his partner while Drakardis finished his schooling, Drake is ready to unleash his Tiger Corps (Jac & Drakardis) upon the crowded NAWC tag division. It will be a trial by fire but Drake is confident that the brash would be student and his son can rise to the top of the tag team heap.

The Black Tiger II – Drakardis

Tiger Corps with Jac K'yl.

Managed by Drake. (note Drake's Distracter Rating is a 6)

6'5" 300lbs.

Dimension X

TIGER BREAKER (does multiple military presses then drops him into a powerslam into his knee)

THE TIGERS GRIP (a version of his fathers lifting double claw hold. Drakardis's version is not as potent despite his greater strength as he losses patience if opponents do not give up fast.) Tiger Claw (grinding claw hold to face, sometimes draws blood due to Drakardis's strength and nails, roll d6 if 6 is rolled then blood is drawn)

Drakardis along with his mother returned to Alaara and his father's side a little over a year ago after being brought up in Dimension X. At first alienated by the sudden move back to his fathers side he has taken up his fathers craft to follow in the mans footsteps he only briefly knew in childhood. Originally separated from his father when his mother brought him back to Dimension X to attend school and learn of his people's beliefs. He is the first student of Drake and second one to gain entrance in the NAWC and along with Jac K'yl looks to learn the ropes as a tag team before his eventual ascension to the singles ranks. Gifted with unusually large paw like hands due to gene splicing that is very prevalent in his mother's culture, Drakardis carries on the Black Tiger legacy by becoming the second incarnation. Strength, size and youth are on his side as he is only 17 years old but the inexperience of ring time could cause growing pains in this rookie prospect. The future is bright but will the expectations of being as good or exceeding his father stall the youngster's progress or will it fuel a killer instinct and take him straight to the top.

Karl Cyclone Collins

6'2" 252lbs.

St. Louis, Missouri, Earth

CYCLONE DRIVER (spinning Death Valley Driver)

Running Cyclone Bomb (running crucifix power bomb)

Cyclone DDT (Tornado DDT to floor)

An Earth born wrestler, Karl has been with the NAWC since their relocation from Earth to Alaara. The time has come for this former match opener and Sanctuary graduate to step up and take his career by the horns. Now in his late twenties the NAWC
